Announcement of Edison Chinese School Intramural Speech Contest

Dear ECS Families,

ECS will resume the in-person speech contest this year. Students who win the intramural contest will be nominated to attend the CACA 2021 Inter-School Speech Contest on behalf of ECS. ECS has been having great accomplishments in different speech contests in the past, and we expect the same outstanding performance this year.

This is also a rare opportunity to practice oral communication and public speech for students who attend the intramural speech contest. How often would you get the opportunity to address the entire school in a public speaking setting? It is highly recommended to seize this opportunity and take on the challenge of public speech. If you need assistance in preparing or drafting your speech, please contact your class teacher for help.

ECS is also organizing a team of experienced instructors aiming to provide additional trainings of public speech and help our students improve and prepare their contest.

Qualification: all currently registered students

Date: 11/20/2021

To encourage the participation, the following recognition award will be issued, regardless the contest results:

- Attend the class speech contest and get five coupons
- Attend the intramural speech contest and get ten coupons
- Attend the CACA speech contest on behalf of ECS and get twenty-five coupons

The detailed speech contest rules will be available in a couple of days. The following is the information about the speech topics, age groups, speech time and grading rules. Please review carefully and start the preparation as early as possible.
